

Authentic August!

This month is your chance to savour a taste of Authentic Kangaroo Island... without crossing the sea.

Dine at La Boca at the Stamford Plaza to share in a special feast of Kangaroo Island produce, wines, beers and spirits.

While you're on North Terrace, enjoy two exhibitions of fine art created exclusively by Island artists.

STAMFORD PLAZA

PARLIAMENT HOUSE

KING WILLIAM STREET

La Boca chef Nicolas Arriola visited Island producers to really understand their passion. Now he brings that passion to you through his Argentinian inspired collations of Kangaroo Island.

Warm up for your delicious dinner with a stroll through two uniquely Kangaroo Island art experiences as part of the SALA Festival.

KINTORE AVENUE

STATE LIBRARY

ART GALLERY

Island to Inland – 10 artists bring mainlanders a glimpse of the isolation and inspiration of Island life. Follow the Island to Inland blog to hear from the artists as they create their new works and explore their community, at www.thedirtsa.com.au.

Flinders University City Gallery (State Library, North Tce) July 1 – September 3.

BOTANIC GARDENS

NATIONAL WINE CENTRE

How do We love Thee? Kangaroo Island Intertidal Zone is more than 100 artworks by 23 Kangaroo Island artists, celebrating the unspoilt coastline of the island.... a restless realm of ebb and flow.

National Wine Centre (corner of Botanic Road and Hackney Road). Every day August 4 - 27, 9am to 6pm.

www.fineartkangarooisland.com.au

fine art
kangaroo island

STAMFORD
Plaza
Adelaide

